DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In papers filed on July 30, 2004 applicant traversed the restriction requirement and selected Group I claims. During the examination and search of the inventions it was discovered that the search requirements for both inventions were not deemed substantially different. Therefore, Groups I and II were consolidated and all claims were considered.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 17-23 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art and the prior art of record, specifically Matsushita does not teach or suggest a controller configured to generate, when a user name not including "@" is input via the panel, an e-mail address by adding the default domain name stored in the memory to the user name input by the panel, and further configured to transmit an e-mail directed to the generated e-mail address, wherein the controller is further configured to input "@" between the user name input via the panel and the default domain name stored in the memory when the controller generates the email address.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
